

CRIMINAL LAW FOR RECORDS PERSONNEL

MAY 7, 2021 0800-1400

WEBINAR

This highly educational program will provide the legal training your Records personnel need to correctly decipher the events described in your agency's police reports. In order to reconcile what a police officer writes in a narrative with the classification of the report and how it should be counted for NIBRS purposes, understanding criminal statutes is imperative.

Gain the confidence you need to correctly understand police reports and take your expertise to the next level upon completing this criminal law course.

Topics include:

- Statutory definitions of crimes
- Reconciling state law with NIBRS offenses
- The "elements" of a crime

INSTRUCTOR BIO

Instructor: Ed Cloughton, PRI Management Group

Lt. Edward Cloughton (ret.) is a 20 year law enforcement veteran and founder of PRI Management Group. He is a public safety records and IT management consultant with expertise in public records compliance, UCR/NIBRS and IT systems. Ed specializes in bringing about organizational improvement, reporting accuracy and public records compliance through the effective management of information and the procurement, implementation and management of new public safety technologies. As a recognized expert in the field he has provided project management, business process design and technical consultative and training services to nearly 200 public safety agencies. Ed's expertise stems from an extensive law enforcement career as a police lieutenant specializing in records and technology services and criminal investigations. He has professional experience planning, assessing, and managing public safety records management projects including building new police records units and assessing current operations. His records management workshops have received excellent reviews and he has been a requested speaker for the IACP, CLEARs, LERMA, PEAf and ARMA. Edward Cloughton holds a Masters in Criminal Justice from Boston University and is a certified law enforcement auditor and public records manager.
