ARTICLE I NAME

Section 1

This Association shall be known as the Washington State Law Enforcement Information and Records Association.

Section 2

This Association is incorporated as a non-profit organization under the laws of the State of Washington.

Section 3

The principal office of LEIRA shall be that of the Treasurer of LEIRA.

ARTICLE II PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

Section 1

The Washington State Law Enforcement Information and Records Association is formed to meet the following objectives:

- A. To promote the profession of criminal justice support personnel through an organized assemblage to identify and promote best practices through education and training.
- B. To advance individual knowledge and techniques by sharing and exchanging professional experiences and information related to criminal justice support services.
- C. To maintain liaison with the Washington Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs on legislation related to criminal justice support services.
- D. To encourage professionalism and high standards of performance among criminal justice support services personnel in the discharge of their responsibilities.

ARTICLE III MEMBERSHIP AND VOTING

Section 1

The membership of the Association shall consist of active and life members in good standing.

- A. Active Members - shall be persons who are employed in information and records systems of a law enforcement agency in the State of Washington. Any Police, Sheriff's Department, Department of Public Safety, Tribal Law Enforcement, University Law Enforcement or other specifically named agencies with arrest powers, shall be considered for Active Membership.
- B. Life Members - may be granted to any current or past members who have distinguished themselves by deed or act on behalf of the objectives and principles of this organization. The granting of such membership shall be by the Executive Board, acting on a written proposal from an active member in good standing. Such proposal shall contain a description of the act(s) or deed(s) of the prospective life members. Past Presidents will automatically have Life Member status. Life members will be allowed to serve as chairpersons of committees, but they may not hold an elective office.

Each agency that has an active member will be granted one vote for representation of the general membership. The agency voter will be designated by their respective Sheriff, Police Chief or Agency Director. The following named agencies shall be considered one agency throughout the State, regardless of various office locations and allowed only one vote:

Washington State Patrol
Department of Wildlife
Gambling Commission
Liquor Enforcement
State Parks
National Parks
Department of Corrections

Section 2

The membership of any member may be revoked by the Executive Board when the actions or conduct of the member can be shown to be in conflict with the provisions of these bylaws or otherwise detrimental to the Association. Such revocation shall be by affirmative vote by a 60% majority of the Executive Board members and following a hearing that affords the member due process of law.

Any member who is in default in payment of dues by March 31 of the current year will be automatically removed from the membership directory. Receipt of payment of dues after this period of time will result in automatic reinstatement of membership and benefits.

Section 3

Active members who cease to be regular and current employees in law enforcement, courts or criminal justice information systems shall have their membership automatically terminated.

Section 4

Any member may resign from the Association by filing a resignation with the Executive Board but such resignation will not relieve the member of obligation to pay any dues, assessments or other fees accrued and unpaid.

Section 5

Membership in the Association is generally not transferable; however, at its discretion and by a majority vote, the Executive Board may waive this limitation in cases where it is appropriate and in the best interest of the Association to do so.

Section 6

Voting Rights – Agency designated voters and Life members shall be entitled to vote in the affairs of the association. The agency may change the designated voting member at any time. In the case that a vote will be taken in person, each member agency will be given a minimum of a 10 day notice of the pending vote. If they are unable to have a voting representative at the vote, they will be provided an absentee ballot.

Section 7

Application for membership shall be made in writing on a form prescribed by the Executive Board. The board will act promptly on all applications.

Section 8

Upon approval of an applicant and upon receipt of the applicant's dues, the name and address of each member and date of membership will be entered on the records of the Association.

Section 9

Elections for open Executive Board positions shall be held each fiscal year, other votes by the general membership will take place as needed. Electronic voting is authorized. General voting procedures will be addressed in the standing rules.

ARTICLE IV DUES AND ASSESSMENTS

Section 1

Membership dues for the Association shall be set by the Executive Board.

Section 2

Life members are not required to pay dues.

Section 3

The fiscal year for LEIRA will be from January 1 to December 31, inclusive.

Section 4

Special assessments that may be required shall be levied only after a majority vote of the Executive Board.

ARTICLE V MEETINGS

Section 1

One (1) regular General Membership Business Meeting shall be scheduled during each fiscal year. A general membership meeting will be held at each conference. In the event that there is no conference in a fiscal year, a meeting will be held during the 4th quarter of the fiscal year. The general membership will be given at least a 30 day notice of each meeting date, location, and time.

Section 2

Special General Membership Business Meetings may be called by the President or Executive Board. If special General Membership Business Meetings are called, members must be notified in writing at least 10 days prior to the meeting. The notification must state the purpose and/or agenda of the meeting as well as the date, location, and time.

Section 3

A quorum shall consist of 50% of the agency designated Active members shall constitute a quorum for all regular and special meetings. If a quorum is not present, the presiding officer may adjourn the meeting until a quorum is present. A quorum is required for a vote to be binding.

Section 4

The Executive Board shall meet at the call of the President to transact emergency business, if necessary.

Section 5

Any membership meeting may be conducted solely through electronic means. In the event of an e-meeting the membership must be given a minimum of a 10 day notice of the technology being used, connection requirements, and free access to the necessary software.

Executive Board meetings may be conducted solely through electronic means.

ARTICLE VI OFFICERS

Section 1

The officers of the Association shall be the President, First Vice President, Second Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer. The President, First Vice President, Second Vice President and Secretary will be elected for a term of one (1) year and may be re-elected for an additional one (1) year term. They will not, however, serve for more than two (2) consecutive years in any one office. The Treasurer will be elected for a term of two (2) years and may be re-elected for an additional two (2) year term. The Treasurer will not, however, serve for more than four (4) consecutive years in that office. Members are limited to serving four(4) terms in each of these positions. The First Vice President and/or Second Vice President positions may be left unfulfilled if no candidate is identified.

Section 2

The policy of the Association is to elect an eastern Washington representative in alternating years to the office of First Vice President and Second Vice President, provided that this policy may be suspended prior to any annual election by a two-thirds vote of the Executive Board.

Section 3

Officers shall be elected by ballot at the fall meeting with installation of officers taking place prior to the end of the conference. To be eligible for election as an officer or as a director, a member must be in the Active or Life classification and no more than one member of an agency shall serve as an officer or director at any one time. To be eligible for candidate for President, a member must have served one (1) full year as an Executive Board Member within the last two (2) years.

Section 4

In the event where the Executive Board is not able to identify a candidate in accordance with the restrictions listed in section 3, a 2nd member from a represented agency may be appointed by the President to serve in the positions of 1st Vice President, 2nd Vice President, Treasurer, or Secretary. In this circumstance the agency with 2 members serving will be allotted 1 vote which will be cast by the elected Board member. If this situation results in a tie vote, the President will appoint a non-voting member of the Executive Board to cast the deciding vote. Executive Board members from the same agency will not be allowed to 2nd their own motion.

Section 5

The President will appoint a person or person(s) responsible for organizing and submitting nominations for each office to the membership 30 days prior to a vote.

Section 6

The policy making body of the Association shall be the Executive Board. The Executive Board may consist of the immediate Past President, officers of the Association, and up to three (3) directors elected by the general membership. Additionally, the supervisor of the Washington Uniform Crime Reporting/Incident Base Reporting section of the Washington Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs, liaison officer ex-officio; and the appointed Conference Committee Chairperson, and the appointed Training Committee Chairperson are expected to attend all board meetings and act as advisors to the board, but not vote on issues.

The directors are elected for a two (2) year term and may not be re-elected unless one year has elapsed since serving in that position. To provide continuity of administration, one director is elected on every odd number year; and up to two (2) directors are elected on every even number year.

Section 7

If an immediate Past President is unavailable or chooses not to serve on the board in this position, the position shall be filled by Presidential appointment from the general active membership, subject to approval of the Executive Board or may be left empty at the President's discretion.

Section 8 - Duties

President: preside at Association and Executive Board meetings, preside at all LEIRA conferences, appoint ex-officio members and chairpersons of all standing or special committees that are required for the attainment of the goals of the Association; to perform all other duties normally incident to this office; may delegate any of these duties when deemed necessary or expedient to do so.

First Vice President: in absence of or the inability of the President, perform the duties of the President; attend all meetings of the Association and Executive Board and such other duties as may be assigned from time to time by the President or Executive Board.

Second Vice President: in the concurrent absence or inability of the President and First Vice President, perform duties of the President; attend all Association and Executive Board meetings, and perform any duty as assigned by the President or Executive Board.

Secretary: prepare and respond to correspondence of the Association; to serve as Secretary to the Executive Board; record, prepare and distribute the minutes of the Association meetings as directed by the President; maintain an accurate list of the membership and perform any duty as designated by the President.

Treasurer: collect and receive all monies from dues and other sources; pay all accounts established by the Association or by the Executive Board; provided, that the Executive Board may authorize an alternate signature for such purposes in the absence of the Treasurer.

The elected Treasurer shall give sufficient bond or security to cover amounts in his/her custody, the amount of such bond to be determined by the Association or by the Executive Board, the premium, therefore, to be paid by the Association.

At each Association meeting, or when requested to do so by the Executive Board, the Treasurer shall render a full report of all monies received and disbursed by him/her at each Association meeting, and shall maintain accurate and verifiable records of all accounts established and maintained by the Association and to perform any duty as designated by the President or Executive Board. The Treasurer shall promptly deliver all books, records, and other property of the Association to a successor in office, or to whomever the Association Executive Board may appoint to receive the same.

All books, records of account and expenditures shall be open at all times for inspection by the Executive Board.

Liaison Officer (Ex-Officio): to attend all meetings of the Association and the Executive Board; act as liaison between the Washington State Law Enforcement Information and Records Association and the Washington Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs.

Directors: to attend all meetings of the Association and of the Executive Board, serve as policy-making body of the Association; continuously monitor activities in the Association to assure that policies are being observed; and perform any other duties as designated by the President.

Section 9

The Executive Board shall have no power to alter or amend the BYLAWS of the Association without the approval of a vote of the general membership. Reasonable and necessary expenses of the Executive Board Members incurred in relation to Board business shall be borne by the Association.

Section 10

- A. Agents and Representatives: The Executive Board may appoint such agents and representatives of LEIRA with the powers to perform such acts or duties on behalf of LEIRA as the Executive Board may see fit, as far as may be consistent with these by-laws, and to the extent authorized or permitted by applicable statute.
- B. Endorsement of Contracts and Documents: The Executive Board may authorize any officer or agent to enter into any contract or execute or deliver any instrument in the name of, or on behalf of, LEIRA. Such authority may be general or confined to a specific instance and, unless so authorized by the Executive board or by these bylaws, no officer, agent, or employee shall have any power or authority to bind LEIRA by any contract or engagement, or to pledge its credit, or incur any pecuniary liability for any purpose in any amount. In no event may any officer, director, agency enter into an agreement on behalf of LEIRA when said agreement involves LEIRA's expenditure or receipt of an amount in excess of $500 without the express authorization of the Executive Board.
- C. Fiscal year: The fiscal year of LEIRA shall consist of a calendar year and extend from January 1st to December 31st in each year.
- D. Indemnification Granted: LEIRA may indemnify and defend any director or officer or former director or officer of LEIRA, or any person who may have served at its ..... request as a director or officer of another organization to the fullest extent permitted by law.
- E. Inspection of Articles and Bylaws: LEIRA shall keep in its principal office in the State of Washington as outlined in Article 1 Section 3 of these BYLAWS the original copy of its Articles of Incorporation and of these BYLAWS, as amended to date, which shall be open to inspection by the directors and such other persons as required by law during the annual meeting and at all reasonable times.

ARTICLE VII COMMITTEES

Section 1

Committees will be created and supported by the association on an as needed basis. The Standing Rules of the association will address committee rules and regulations.

ARTICLE VIII PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURES

Section 1

The Rules of Procedure contained in Roberts Rules of Order, Revised, shall be used in conducting business of the Association in all cases where they do not conflict with the rules of the Association, as interpreted by the Executive Board.

ARTICLE IX EMBLEM AND PUBLICATION

Section 1

An emblem that has been approved by the majority of the membership shall be designated the official emblem of the Association.

Section 2

The official emblem of the Association may be used on all documents produced by the Association. The emblem may be manipulated as needed for authorized activities of the association such as memorabilia, website applications, letterhead, etc. as long as it does not significantly alter the agreed upon image.

Section 3

The official publication of the Association shall be known as "FOR THE RECORD".

ARTICLE X AMENDMENTS

Section 1

Amendments to these bylaws shall be adopted upon a 50% majority vote of approval by those eligible to vote in association elections provided that notice has been given to members of the Association not later than thirty (30) days to the commencement of the vote.

ARTICLE XI DISSOLUTION

Section 1

Dissolution of the Association shall occur only upon the unanimous approval of the Executive Board and a majority of at least three-fourths of the eligible voting membership.

APPENDIX I

STANDING RULES OF LEIRA:

Motions that have been passed at the LEIRA Executive Board and/or General Membership Meetings detailing procedures of the organization. These “standing rules” cover day-to-day operating details, whereas the bylaws govern the organization. Originally compiled in 1992 and printed in the newsletter, the “standing rules” were evaluated by the Executive Board for accuracy in 1995. In 1997, the Executive Board reevaluated these standing rules and reformatted these and deleted those that have subsequently been replaced as bylaw revisions or included in committee descriptions. From this time forward, these decisions shall be officially recorded as an appendix to the bylaws.

Nancy Lingel By-Law Chair
